[He expanded Himself as the five-fold potencies of the panca tattva in order to expedite the free distribution of the Holy names of Krishna leading to the attainment of Krishna Prema, the fifth-end. Fully equipped with His transcendental limbs and divine weapons and accompanied by His associates, He descended on earth in all His opulence. Being the supreme Lord Syamasundara Himself, He appeared as Gaurasundara, dancing and singing the Holy names in ecstasy through the streets of Nadia like an ordinary citizen. I sing with joy the unending glories of my golden Gaurasundara, my sweet Lord, the one and only divine abode of pure love.]

The portrait of Sri Sri MahaPrabhu drawn by an artist (being ordered by Maharaja Pratab Rudra), when he was staying at Gambhira, Puri

How did Lord Caitanya really look?

This is a portrait drawn by an artist when ordered by Maharaja Pratab Rudra when Mahaprabhu stayed in Gambhira.

Thanks to Subal Sakha Prabhu (Mishraji) and Anupama.

Maha Prabhu took only 2 teachings from each Sampradaya.

Lord Caitanya gave: Acintya Beda-Abheda Tattva.

Lakshmi Sampradaya (Visishta-advaita Vaada)

1. Service to Vaishnavas
2. Unalloyed Bhakti

Brahma Madhva Sampradaya (Sudha-dvaita Vaada)

1. Defeat of Mayavada
2. Worship of Krishna Deity

Rudra Sampradaya (Sudha-advaita Vaada)

1. Mood that “Krsna is my everything”
2. Raga Marga Bhakti

Kumara Sampradaya (Dvaita-advaita Vaadaa)

1. Shelter of Sri Radha Rani’s feet
2. Aspiration for Gopi Bhava

Maha Prabhu came specifically to give this highest Bhava..
And even higher the Manjari Bhava..
Only He can give it..
Because He is in the mood of Srimati Radha Rani..
